

Transportation To and From Chicago's Airports

O'Hare Airport

Via Taxi: Cab fare is approximately $35.00 to $45.00 per person one-way. Depending on traffic, the ride usually takes 30-60 minutes.

Via Public Transportation: Chicago Transit Authority $3.50 round trip plus a short cab ride, or, change from the train to a bus at Clark and Lake, (see below) with $4.00 total round-trip fare (approximately 60 minutes total time).

Catch the Blue line train from the lower level of the airport; follow the signs in the airport for the CTA trains. Exit the train at the Clark and Lake Stop, also known as the Thompson Center Stop. Take the escalators upstairs. Taxis will be available immediately upon exiting the building (the fare to the Wyndham Hotel is approximately $5.00 to $7.00).

Via Shuttle: Continental Airport Express provides a shuttle between O'Hare and any downtown hotel. Shuttles leave O'Hare Airport every 10 to 15 minutes from terminals 1E, 3E, 2D and 5E. Shuttles usually take about an hour. ***

Reservations are not required going from O'Hare to a downtown hotel. However, 24-hour advanced reservations are required when going to the airport. Reservations are recommended for a handicapped-accessible vehicle or special service. Reservations can be made in advance by calling 1-888-284-3826, or on the Internet at: www.thehudsongroup.com. Continental accepts all major credit cards, as well as cash.

Tickets can be purchased at Airport Express counters located in the terminals at Door 1E, Door 2D and Door 3E, across from baggage claim area.

The one-way fare for one person is $21.00. Roundtrip, the cost for one person is $39.00. For two passengers, the costs are one-way: $16.00 each and roundtrip: $30.00 each. For three or more passengers, the group rate is $12.00 per person one-way and $23.00 roundtrip.
